AT THE COURT AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE,

The 29th day of January, 1904.

PRESENT:

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

Whereas by an Order in Council, dated the 17th day of March, 1875, after reciting that by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," it was enacted that, whenever it was made to appear to Her late Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships for the time being in force under the principal Act, had been adopted by the Government of any foreign country, and were in force in that country, it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, to direct that the ships of such foreign country should be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other national papers, and thereupon it should no longer be necessary for such ships to be re-measured in any port or place in Her Majesty's Dominions, but such ships should be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other papers, in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes, in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificates of registry of British ships was to be deemed the tonnage of such ships, and reciting that it had been made to appear to Her late Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement or tonnage of merchant ships then in force under "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," had been adopted by the Government of His Majesty the King of Spain, with the exception of a difference in the mode in certain steamers of estimating the allowance for engine-room, and such rules were then in force in that country, having come into operation on the 2nd day of December, 1874, Her Majesty was thereby pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to direct as follows:—

1. As regards sailing ships, that merchant sailing ships of the said Kingdom of Spain, the measurement whereof after the said 2nd day of December, 1874, had been ascertained and denoted in the registers and other national papers of such sailing ships, testified by the date thereof, should be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in such registers and other national papers in the same manner, and to the same extent, and for the same purpose, in, to and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of British sailing ships was deemed to be the tonnage of such ships:

2. As regards steamships, that merchant ships belonging to the said Kingdom of Spain which were propelled by steam or any other power requiring engine-room, the measurement whereof should, after the said 2nd day of December, 1874, have been ascertained and denoted in the registers and other national papers of such steam ships, testified by the dates thereof, should be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in such registers or other national papers in the same manner, and to the same extent, and for the same purpose, in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of British ships was deemed to be the tonnage of such ships; provided, nevertheless, that if the owner or master of any such Spanish steam ship desired the deduction for engine room in his ships to be estimated under the rules for engine room measurement and deduction applicable to British ships instead of under the Spanish rule, the engine room should be measured and the deduction calculated according to the British rules.

And whereas the "Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," was repealed by the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," but by section 745 of the latter Act it is amongst other things provided that any Order in Council made under any enactment thereby repealed shall continue in force as if it had been made under the said Act of 1894:

And whereas by section 84 of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," it is enacted as follows:—

84.—(1.) Whenever it appears to Her Majesty the Queen in Council that the tonnage regulations of this Act have been adopted by any foreign country, and are in force there, Her Majesty in Council may order that the ships of that country shall, without being re-measured in Her Majesty's Dominions, be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other national papers, in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes as the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of a British ship is deemed to be the tonnage of that ship:

(2.) Her Majesty in Council may limit the time during which the Order is to remain in operation, and make the Order subject to such conditions and qualifications (if any) as Her Majesty may deem expedient, and the operation of the Order shall be limited and modified accordingly:

(3.) If it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the tonnage of any foreign ship, as measured by the rules of the country to which she belongs, materially differs from that which would be her tonnage if measured under this Act, Her Majesty in Council may order that, notwithstanding any Order in Council for the time being in force under this section, any of the ships of that country may, for all or any of the purposes of this Act, be re-measured in accordance with this Act:

And whereas by section 30 of the "Interpretation Act, 1889," it is enacted that in that Act, and in every other Act whether passed before or after the commencement of that Act, references to the Sovereign reigning at the time of the passing of the Act or to the Crown shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as references to the Sovereign for the time being, and that Act shall be binding on the Crown:

And whereas it has been made to appear to His present Majesty that the tonnage of Spanish ships as measured by the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships of Spain materially differs from that which would be the tonnage of such ships if measured under the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1894":

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council doth Order that notwithstanding the hereinbefore recited Order in Council, dated the 17th day of March, 1875, any of the ships of Spain may for all or any of the purposes of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," be re-measured in accordance with the said Act.

The Committee concur in the observations and recommendations made therein, and submit the same for approval.

JOHN J. MCGEE,
Clerk of the Privy Council.

His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, Province of British Columbia.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, CANADA,
OTTAWA, 8th January, 1904.

To His Excellency

The Governor-General in Council:

The undersigned has had under consideration the Statutes of the Province of British Columbia passed during the year 1903, and has the honour to submit his report thereon, as follows:—

3 Edward VII.—received by the Secretary of State on 25th June, 1903,—

Chapter 8, intituled "An Act to ratify an Order in Council approved on the 18th day of March, 1902, rescinding certain provisions of an Order in Council approved on the 4th day of September 1901, respecting the Land Grant of the Columbia and Western Railway Company."

The undersigned reserves this Act for further consideration inasmuch as he understands that objections are urged against it on behalf of the railway company whose title is thereby affected.

Chapter 12, intituled "An Act to regulate Immigration into British Columbia,"

Chapter 14, intituled "An Act relating to the employment on Works carried on under Franchises granted by Private Acts,"

Chapter 17, intituled "An Act to further amend the Coal Mines Regulation Act,"

The undersigned has already reported recommending the disallowance of these three Acts for the reasons upon which similar Acts have heretofore been disallowed.

Chapter 30, "An Act to incorporate the Adams River Railway Company,"

Chapter 32, "An Act to incorporate the British Columbia Northern and Mackenzie Valley Railway Company,"

Chapter 33, "An Act to incorporate the Flathead Valley Railroad Company,"

Chapter 34, "An Act to incorporate the Kootenay, Cariboo and Pacific Railway Company,"

Chapter 35, "An Act to incorporate the Kootenay Central Railway Company,"

Chapter 36, "An Act to incorporate the Kootenay Development and Tramways Company,"

Chapter 37, "An Act to incorporate the Morrissey, Fernie and Michel Railway Company,"

Chapter 38, "An Act to amend the 'Nicola, Kamloops and Similkameen Coal and Railway Company Act, 1891,'"

Chapter 39, "An Act to incorporate the Pacific Northern and Eastern Railway Company,"

Chapter 42, "An Act to amend the "Vernon and Nelson Telephone Company Act, 1891,""

Each of these Acts contains a provision in effect that the Act shall not come into force until the Company shall give security to the satisfaction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council that in the event of Dominion legislation bringing the Company under the exclusive jurisdiction of the Parliament of Canada, the authority of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to fix maximum rates for freight and passenger traffic shall be secured as matter of contract and obligation of the Company. This provision corresponds with that contained in previous Acts of British Columbia, the objections to which were stated by the Minister of Justice at the time. These chapters are subject to the same comment, but may for the same reasons be left to their operation.

The undersigned accordingly recommends that the Acts above mentioned or referred to be left to such operation as they may have, except as to the further Acts which, as above stated, have been made the subject of a separate report or reserved for further report.

The undersigned further recommends that this report, if approved, be communicated to the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of British Columbia for the information of his Government.

Humbly submitted.

DOMINION ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

(Ref. 873,213.)

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

Thursday, the 10th day of March, 1904.

PRESENT:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL
IN COUNCIL.

ON a Report dated 5th February, 1904, from the Minister of the Interior, stating that Mr. Hewitt Bostock, of Monte Creek, in British Columbia, has requested to be allowed to purchase the following lands in the "Forty Mile Railway Belt," in the said Province, the lands being of inferior quality and only fit for grazing purposes he has offered $2.00 per acre for them. The Homestead Inspector has examined and reported upon these lands and states that they can be considered of very little value except for grazing purposes, and as such grazing lands they cannot be considered valuable at present owing to the fact that the natural grasses have all been killed and are not in his opinion worth more per acre than offered by Mr. Bostock. The lands are as follows:—

E. $\frac{1}{2}$ of Section 28	320 acres.
S. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ " 28	160 "
W. $\frac{1}{2}$ " 27	320 "
W. $\frac{1}{2}$ of S. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ 27	80 "

in Township 19, in Range 14, west of the 6th Meridian, British Columbia.

The Minister further states that it is provided in section 10 of "Regulations for the survey, administration, disposal and management of Dominion Lands within the 'Forty Mile Railway Belt,' in the said Province, that no person shall be allowed to purchase a greater area of such land than 640 acres, except by the authority of the Governor in Council.

The Minister recommends, as Mr. Bostock has already purchased this area, that he be authorised to sell Mr. Bostock the lands in Township 19, before mentioned, and at the rate per acre before stated.

The Committee submit the same for approval.

JOHN J. MCGEE,
Clerk of the Privy Council.

EXTRACT FROM A REPORT OF A COMMITTEE OF THE HONOURABLE THE PRIVY COUNCIL APPROVED BY HIS EXCELLENCY ON THE 8TH JANUARY, 1904.

ON a Report dated 21st December, 1903, from the Minister of the Interior, stating that provision is made in Paragraph (i) of Section 1, Chapter 5, of 60-61 Victoria, being an Act to authorise a subsidy for a railway through the Crows' Nest Pass, for the conveyance to the Crown in the interest of Canada of fifty thousand acres of coal bearing land obtained by the Railway Company from the Government of British Columbia as a subsidy in connection with the construction of their line, such fifty thousand acres to be selected by the Government in such fair and equitable manner as might be determined by the Governor in Council and to be thereafter held or disposed of or otherwise dealt with by the Government as it might think fit, on such conditions as might be prescribed by the Governor in Council, for the purpose of securing a sufficient and suitable supply of coal to the public at reasonable prices, not exceeding two dollars per ton of two thousand pounds free on board cars at the mines.

The Minister further states that a selection of the area in question was made under the provisions of the above section of the Act and this selection was approved by an Order in Council of the 19th of May, 1902.

The Minister recommends, as the Regulations for the sale of coal mining lands in Manitoba, the North-West Territories and the Province of British Columbia approved by Order in Council of the 19th day of May, 1902, would not appear to be applicable to the above area and would not meet the provisions of the said Act, that no mining regulations or other regulations for the sale or disposal of Dominion Lands shall apply to the area of 50,000 acres above referred to, or any part thereof, but that these lands shall only be disposed of as specially authorised by Order in Council.

The Committee submit the same for approval.

JOHN J. McGEE,
Clerk of the Privy Council.

Saturday, the 12th day of March, 1904.

PRESENT:

IN COUNCIL.

ON a Memorandum dated 26th February, 1904, from the Minister of the Interior, stating that the "West Side North Thompson School Section," British Columbia, has made application for the purpose of building a school thereon, for a free grant of one acre of land in the south-east quarter of Section 22, Township 22, Range 17, west of the 6th Meridian, which may be more particularly described as follows:—

Commencing at a point twenty-eight chains west of a post in the south-east corner of the north-east quarter of Section 22 in the said Township and Range; thence south 208 feet; thence west 209 feet six inches; thence north 208 feet; thence east to the point of commencement, containing one acre, more or less.

The Minister recommends that he be authorised to convey, for the purpose mentioned, under section 12 of the British Columbia Regulations respecting Dominion Lands, the one acre in question, which is vacant and available, to the West Side North Thompson School Section, the usual patent fee of $10 to be remitted.

The Committee submit the same for approval.

17. His headquarters shall be at Victoria, and he shall require the officers to report thereat as often as he shall deem requisite, and shall then communicate to them such orders and instructions as he may deem necessary.

18. He shall make out the pay-lists and prepare the estimates at the commencement of every half-year for the expenditure of the Police Department, for the examination and approval of the Attorney-General.

19. It is his duty to be thoroughly cognizant of all expenses incurred and moneys paid out in connection with the Department.

III.—DUTIES OF CHIEF CONSTABLES.

20. A Chief Constable within his territorial jurisdiction shall have general supervision over the Constables.

21. He may, at discretion, suspend from duty any Constable within his District against whom a complaint has been made, or who is charged with committing any of the offences mentioned in section 44 of these Regulations, and he shall immediately report the fact and cause of such suspension to the Superintendent, who will then take action as provided for in section 13 of these Regulations.

IV.—GENERAL DUTIES OF THE CONSTABLES.

22. Constables away from headquarters are to be under the direction of the Chief Constable of the District, to whom they shall report, and who shall consult and co-operate with the Superintendent in meeting the police requirements of the District. Reports shall also be made monthly to the Superintendent, on forms to be provided; such reports shall be sent on the first day of the month to the Chief Constable of the District to be examined, and he will forward the same to the Superintendent.

23. In addition to such monthly reports, Constables shall, in important cases, report immediately to the Chief Constable and obtain his instructions or assistance, taking, however, such steps to apprehend the offender or secure evidence as the nature of the case demands. The Chief Constable shall, when occasion requires, report the case to the Superintendent, who will give instructions with reference to the prosecution.

24. Where two or more Constables are employed in the same District, either permanently or casually, the senior in date of appointment shall, unless otherwise directed, take charge. The Superintendent may give directions from time to time in this regard.

25. All Constables, wherever employed for the time being, shall be auxiliary to each other, and shall be subject to removal from place to place as the necessities of the service require.

26. It shall be the duty of the Constable who was employed upon a case when it first arose to report to the Chief Constable as to further evidence to be procured for the trial, and to industriously devote himself to the preparation of the case.

27. The men shall, under all circumstances, appear clean in uniform as well as person.

28. A Constable must always be prepared for duty, whether in uniform or not, and should always assist citizens legally requiring his services; and if not in uniform, show his badge or state that he is a Constable.

29. In Districts for which no Chief Constable has been appointed, Constables shall report direct to the Superintendent.

V.—UNIFORMS.

30. The Sergeant, Chief Constables and Constables shall wear, when so instructed by the Superintendent, such uniforms as he directs, and no uniforms other than those so directed shall be worn.

31. When a Constable has been suspended or discharged, or has resigned, he shall immediately deliver up his uniform and equipment to the Chief Constable or the Constable who is directed to receive them.

VI.—GENERAL REGULATIONS.

32. Chief Constables and Constables shall address all correspondence affecting the performance of their duties to the Superintendent.

33. A Constable shall devote his whole time and attention to the police service, and shall follow no other occupation or calling, directly or indirectly, unless specially permitted to do so by the Superintendent.

34. He shall promptly obey all lawful orders from his superior officers, and conform himself to all rules and regulations which may be made from time to time for the benefit of the service.

35. He shall clearly understand what powers are given to him by law and the Department for the efficient discharge of his duties. For this purpose he is recommended to read carefully the instructions given to him respecting the general duties of a Constable, and must make himself familiar with the provisions of the "Criminal Code" affecting his duties.

36. He must be particularly cautious not to interfere idly or unnecessarily. When required to act he will do so with decision and boldness. He must remember that there is no qualification more indispensable than a perfect command of temper, never allowing himself to be moved in the slightest degree by any language or threats that may be used. If he does his duty in a quiet and determined manner, such conduct will induce well-disposed bystanders to assist him, should he require it.

37. Upon no occasion, and under no pretence whatever, shall any officer or man of the force accept any gratuity, present or reward from any person for services rendered by him in the discharge of his duties, without the express permission of the Superintendent.

38. All Constables when travelling on duty shall keep themselves supplied with forms, upon which they shall obtain vouchers for all expenses incurred by them. They shall not, except under exceptional circumstances, or when duly authorised, issue vouchers in payment of accounts. Vouchers must show upon the face the duty upon which the Constable is engaged. Vouchers shall be marked as correct by the Constable, and certified by the Superintendent or Chief Constable upon the report of the Constable.

39. No Constable shall quit the force without giving two weeks' notice, unless by consent of the Superintendent. In case he quits without such consent or such notice, or be dismissed from the force, all arrears of pay then due shall be forfeited.

40. Every Constable, upon being appointed, shall make out an inventory of all articles of equipment which are issued to him or which he finds at his station; he shall sign and forward to the Chief Constable a receipt for the same, and shall be held responsible for such articles. When a Constable leaves the force, either through resignation or dismissal, he shall account for all such articles, and shall not be finally paid for his services until he has done so.

41. Untruthfulness is a grave disqualification. Members of the force must speak the truth at all times and under all circumstances, except in cases where they are not allowed by the rules of the service to divulge facts within their knowledge, in which event they must avoid saying anything.

42. To enable him to speak quite confidently and to prevent the possibility of his evidence being shaken, he is to jot down at the time in his memorandum book dates and other particulars respecting events, accidents or occurrences, to which he can always refer.

43. If a constable is called upon to act, he must do so with energy, promptness and determination, for, if he wavers or doubts, the criminal may escape, or the opportunity to render assistance may be lost.

44. Every man of the force will be liable to dismissal for the following offences:—

Disobedience of orders, drunkenness, insolence in word or manner, violence, or coarse language or behaviour.

Permitting a prisoner to escape through negligence.

Neglect of duty.

Absence without leave.

Immoral conduct.

Conduct unbecoming an officer or member of the police.

Conduct injurious to the public service or public welfare.

Incapacity—mental, physical or educational.

Contracting a debt under false or fraudulent pretences.

Entering houses of ill-fame or taverns, unless in regular discharge of duty, and various other offences unnecessary to class—all violations of rules and regulations included under the general head of any breach of discipline.

45. Repeated complaints against any member of the force for incurring debts, and evidence of continued and persistent neglect or refusal to pay just debts, or to support his wife and family, shall be deemed unbecoming conduct, and will be cause for dismissal.

46. For any offence against the provisions of the Act or Regulations, or for any neglect of duty, the Superintendent shall fine any officer or man of the force offending. The fine shall not exceed ten days' pay. Fines shall be deducted from the pay of the offenders.

47. Coolness and firmness will be expected in all cases, and in circumstances of peril all must be careful to act together and to protect each other in the restoration of peace and order. Whoever shrinks from danger or responsibility at such a moment is unworthy of a place in the service, and will be discharged at once.

48. Any instance of unnecessary violence in striking a person in charge will be severely punished. A Constable must not use his baton because the person in his custody is violent in behaviour or language. A Constable is not to use language to persons to provoke or offend them. Such conduct creates resistance not only in the person in charge, but arouses among the bystanders a hostile feeling towards the Constable. Every Constable will recollect that in executing an arrest he is not justified in doing more than is absolutely necessary for the safe custody of the person.

49. Members of the force are forbidden to smoke in public or to drink when on duty.

50. All matters relating to the Department shall be kept strictly secret, and no communication, whether in writing, verbally or otherwise, in any way connected with the force or its operation, shall be made or given to anyone without permission, under penalty of dismissal.

51. The men on and off duty are to consider themselves liable to be called on at all times, and will prepare themselves, when required, at the shortest notice.

52. No member shall, directly or indirectly, be concerned in making any compromise or arrangement between thieves or other criminals and persons who have suffered by their acts, with a view to permitting the criminals to escape the penalties provided by law; and any Officer or Constable who has taken any part in such compromises or arrangements, or has any knowledge thereof and fails to give information to his superior officer, shall be subject to immediate dismissal.

53. Members of the force shall abstain from the expression of political or religious opinions which may in the slightest degree be calculated to give offence, and shall not, after appointment (except as a matter of police duty), attend any political meeting.

54. No certificate of character shall be granted by the Superintendent—

- (a.) If the Constable is dismissed the service: .
- (b.) If the Constable has been repeatedly guilty of misconduct, although of a slight nature;
- (c.) If the Constable has been guilty of any misconduct of a serious nature;
- (d.) If the Constable leaves the service without giving due notice of his intention so to do.

VII.—COMPLAINTS.

55. The statement of any person making a complaint against the police at the station is to be taken down in writing, and submitted to the Chief Constable. The complainant must be requested to sign the statement, and the Officer taking down the complaint is to ascertain from the person complaining whether he is willing to make his charge to the Superintendent, should it be deemed necessary to hold an investigation, as provided for in section 13 of these Regulations.

56. Complaints by police against each other are to be made in writing and signed, and are to be submitted to the Superintendent.

57. Grievances or causes of complaint by the police can at any time be laid before the Superintendent.

VIII.—REGULATIONS RESPECTING CONSTABLES WHO HOLD ADDITIONAL OFFICES.

58. Constables who hold other appointments, such as those of Mining Recorder or Assessor and Collector, shall, so far as their duties as Constable are concerned, be under the same regulations as other members of the force.

59. The salaries of such Constables, where the same are not provided for by a special vote, shall be such as are fixed in accordance with these regulations, with such increased remuneration, if any, as is provided by Order in Council.

IX.—FIREARMS.

60. As the supply of firearms to the police is a matter of great expense to the Government, it is requested that Constables will observe the following instructions for the care of rifles and revolvers issued to them by the Department.

Rifles.

- (a.) Rifles should be cleaned and oiled at least once every two weeks, and when they have been used they should be thoroughly cleaned and oiled immediately afterwards, and put away in a clean and dry place.

Revolvers and Pistols.

- (b.) Revolvers and pistols require more care and attention than rifles, owing to the fact that the mechanism of the former is smaller and of a more delicate nature :
- (c.) The interior parts of such weapons are easily affected by rust, which soon renders the arm unworkable :
- (d.) The heat and moisture of the body very quickly affect revolvers and pistols that are carried in the pocket, and if such weapons do not receive frequent and proper care, they cannot be expected to give satisfaction, and they will not do so :
- (e.) Firearms of the best manufacture are furnished to Provincial Constables, because if such weapons are ever required for actual use, in the defence of life or property, a first-class article is absolutely necessary, and it should be the constant care of every constable to see that his arms are in perfect condition at all times, in order that they may be relied on for effectiveness in a case of emergency :

Repairs.

- (f.) When repairs are necessary, and there is no local gunsmith available, the arm should be sent to the Superintendent immediately.
- (g.) The disgraceful condition of many of the firearms returned by Constables is quite sufficient to justify the Department in insisting that all Constables shall be required to deposit with the Government a sum sufficient to cover the value of the firearms supplied to them ; the amount so deposited to be refunded when the officer leaves the service, or returns the arms in a fair and reasonable condition.

61. All existing Rules and Regulations in respect to the order, management, disposition and remuneration of the Provincial Police Force, and all directions given or circulars issued or published in pursuance of any such Rules and Regulations otherwise, are hereby cancelled.

By Command.

RICHARD McBRIDE,
Provincial Secretary.

A receipt shall be signed by the prisoner for all property returned to him, or her, on his, or her, release, or when otherwise disposed of.
- (8.) An Order Book, in which shall be entered all orders by the Warden to the Gaol officials.
- (9.) A Labour Book, showing how every sentenced prisoner has been daily employed, and in which a daily record shall be made of the conduct and industry of every convicted prisoner, with a view to determine the amount of remission of sentence to which such convicted prisoner may be entitled for good conduct at the end of every month.

8. The Warden may suspend any Gaoler or Guard who reports for duty at the Gaol in a condition unfit for duty, or who refuses to obey the lawful directions of the Warden, or who commits any breach of Gaol discipline; and he shall at once report the fact and cause of such suspension to the Inspector, or, in his absence, to the Government Agent of the District in which the Gaol is situate.

9. The Warden may place such irons on a prisoner (other than a debtor) as he may deem necessary for the prevention of escape.

10. In the absence of the Warden from the Gaol, the First Gaoler shall be charged with the duties and responsibilities of the Warden, unless the Lieutenant-Governor in Council otherwise directs.

11. Where there is no Warden, these Rules and Regulations shall apply to the officer in charge of the Gaol.

III.—THE MATRON.

12. The female prisoners shall be kept separate and secluded from the male prisoners, and shall be under the charge of the Matron.

13. The Matron shall, under the direction of the Warden, have the care and superintendence of the female prisoners.

14. She shall see that no male person enters the ward for females without being accompanied by her, and she shall have the sole care of the keys used in the female department.

15. She shall, at least once a day, visit and inspect every part of the ward in which female prisoners are confined or are at work, and shall, at least once a week, along with the Warden, closely inspect all the iron gratings, locks and window gratings, and search the cells and bedding, in order to discover whether anything is secreted by which an escape might be facilitated.

16. She shall accompany the Gaol Surgeon on his visits to the female ward, and shall inform him of anything pertaining to the mental or physical condition of the female prisoners that should be brought to his attention; and she shall notify the Gaol Surgeon without delay of the illness of any female prisoners.

17. She shall be present at the meals served to the female prisoners, and see that they are properly served; and she shall be present in the morning at the opening of the ward and cells in which the female prisoners are confined, and at the locking up of the same at night.

19. She shall report everything of importance that occurs in the female ward to the Warden, to be recorded in the Journal; and she shall also report every case of disobedience, insubordination or other infraction of the Rules and Regulations on the part of the female prisoners, and shall see that the punishment awarded for the same is strictly carried out.

IV.—THE GAOL SURGEON.

20. The Gaol Surgeon shall attend professionally on all the prisoners, and shall have the general care of their health. In his visits to the male ward he shall be accompanied by the Warden, and in his visits to the female ward by the Matron.

21. He shall keep at the Gaol a Journal, in which he shall record—

(1.) The date and hour of every visit paid to the Gaol by him :

(2.) An account of the nature of the disease of every prisoner requiring treatment, and his instructions respecting diet, medicine and exemption from labour.

22. He shall at least once in every three months visit every part of the Gaol and closely inspect the means of drainage, ventilation, warming and water supply, and shall record in his Journal, for the information of all concerned, any remarks or suggestions he may have to make respecting the same, or the want of cleanliness, bad quality of the food, insufficiency of clothing or bedding, or any other cause which may affect the health of the prisoners.

23. When corporal punishment is, by the order of a Judge or Magistrate, to be inflicted on a prisoner, the Gaol Surgeon shall first make an examination of the physical condition of the prisoner, and report whether the infliction of such corporal punishment will be attended with danger to life or with risk of permanent injury to health, and he shall always be present during the infliction of the punishment.

24. The Gaol Surgeon, being by law one of the statutory examiners of persons imprisoned for an offence and confined in a Gaol, and who have become insane therein, shall closely observe the mental condition of such prisoners, and enter in his journal a record of the result of his observations.

25. In case of sickness, necessary engagement or leave of absence, the Gaol Surgeon shall appoint an efficient substitute, who must be a duly qualified medical practitioner, and who, during the absence of the Gaol Surgeon, shall perform all his duties and be subject to all his responsibilities.

V.—THE GAOLERS AND GUARDS.

26. The Gaolers and Guards shall obey the directions of the Warden, subject to these Rules and Regulations, and perform such gaol duties and work as may be directed by the Warden, such directions to be recorded in the Warden's Order Book, and to be subject to revision by the Inspector.

27. They shall not at any time absent themselves from the Gaol without leave first given by the Warden, and before so absenting themselves they shall deliver to the Warden such of the keys of the Gaol as are in their possession.

28. It is the special duty of the Gaolers and Guards under the directions of the Warden, to guard and watch the prisoners and to oversee them when at work, seeing that they are never left alone when in the Gaol yards, or when cleaning any portion of the Gaol or premises outside the wards; and they shall see that the work of cleaning the cells, corridors and other parts of the Gaol, the airing and making-up of the beds, and the other ordinary work of the Gaol, are performed by a certain hour every morning, to be named by the Warden.

29. They shall not receive any visitors within the Gaol without the permission of the Warden.

30. They shall immediately report to the Warden any case of disobedience, insubordination, or infraction of these Rules and Regulations on the part of any male prisoner, and shall see that the punishment awarded by the Warden is strictly carried out.

31. They shall commence and leave off duty at such hours as the Warden shall direct; and before going on duty, the Gaolers shall pass through the male ward of the Gaol with the Gaoler whom they are relieving, when they shall count the prisoners and see that their number agrees with the report of the Gaoler last on duty. They shall sign their names in a book to be kept for that purpose, receipting for the number of prisoners handed over to them.

32. They shall, at least once a day, visit and inspect every part of the Gaol in which male prisoners are confined or are at work or exercising, and shall, at least once a week, along with the Warden, closely inspect all the iron gratings, locks and window gratings, and search the cells and bedding in order to discover whether anything is secreted by which an escape might be facilitated.

33. Gaolers and Guards permitting prisoners to escape will be immediately suspended by the Warden, who will report the fact and cause of such suspension to the Inspector, or in his absence to the Government Agent of the District in which the Gaol is situated.

34. The attention of Gaolers and Guards is directed to section 166A of the Criminal Code, which enacts as follows:—

“Every one is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to one year’s imprisonment, who, by failing to perform any legal duty, permits a person in his lawful custody on a criminal charge to escape therefrom.”

35. The Senior guard may refuse to allow any prisoner to go out in the chain-gang unless he is ironed to his satisfaction. He shall carefully examine prisoners’ irons daily, and when the prisoners leave the Gaol for work and return to the Gaol, their irons shall be examined by the Senior Guard and the Gaoler on duty at the time.

VI.—PRISONERS.

36. All prisoners shall be searched on admission, the males by the Warden or Gaoler, and the females by the Matron, and all dangerous weapons, articles calculated to facilitate an escape, and other articles not necessary for a prisoner’s use while in gaol, shall be taken from them and a list thereof entered by the Warden in the Prisoners’ Effects Book, together with an account of all money and all articles which may be sent to the prisoners while in confinement; and on the discharge of a prisoner, such articles and money shall be delivered to him or her, except unlawful weapons, burglars’ tools and other articles which may be legally confiscated by the Gaol authorities, or which are retained by order of a Judge or Magistrate.

37. On the admission of any prisoner, the name, age and all other particulars which are required in order to fill up the columns of the Gaol Register, shall be recorded in the Register.

38. On admission to the Gaol, all prisoners shall be bathed and cleansed, and they shall be required to keep themselves clean and decent in their persons; and all male prisoners shall, on conviction and sentence, have their hair cut as close as may be necessary for the purpose of health and cleanliness; but the hair of a female prisoner shall not be cut without her consent, unless the Gaol Surgeon orders it to be done on the ground of health, or in the interests of cleanliness.

39. Juvenile prisoners, whether awaiting trial or under sentence, shall, so far as the accommodation and arrangement of the Gaol will permit, be kept separate and apart from other prisoners.

40. The following Rules, relating to the treatment and conduct of prisoners, shall be printed in legible characters and be fixed up in every cell:—

- (1.) The first duty of a prisoner is strict obedience.
- (2.) Strict silence must be observed in all parts of the Gaol. No conversation between prisoners will be allowed except by special permission of the Gaoler under whose charge they are;
- (3.) Prisoners shall rise at 6:30 o’clock a.m. from 1st April to 30th September, and at 7 o’clock a.m. from 1st October to 31st March, and will be allowed half an hour to wash, dress themselves and clean their cells;
- (4.) Every prisoner shall sweep out his cell thoroughly upon getting up, empty the slop pail and fold his bedding and leave it in a tidy state, and afterwards keep his cell and its contents in a neat and clean condition;
- (5.) Prisoners shall always approach all Gaol Officials in a respectful manner, speak in a respectful tone of voice, and in as few words as possible make known their requests;
- (6.) No prisoner shall possess himself of tobacco, matches, or any contraband article, instrument or tool, no matter how small the size or quantity; and a prisoner found in possession of or attempting to smuggle any such thing into the Gaol will be dealt with as insubordinate;
- (7.) No prisoner shall mark or scratch the walls, spit on the floor or deface, alter or reconstruct any article or part of his bedding, dress, cell or cell furniture, or waste, damage or destroy any material upon which he is employed;

- (8.) No lights shall be allowed in any of the cells ;
- (9.) Prisoners having any complaints to make may report them to the Warden, or to the Inspector during his inspections, who will investigate them, but a prisoner making complaints which he or she is unable to substantiate, will be liable to be dealt with as insubordinate ;
- (10.) Prisoners wishing to see and consult with their legal advisers or clergymen, or to converse with their friends, must apply to the Warden for permission to do so ;
- (11.) No prisoner shall give anything to another prisoner ;
- (12.) No local newspapers of any kind will be allowed to prisoners, and all other reading matter shall pass the Warden's inspection before it is given to prisoners ;
- (13.) Prisoners sentenced to hard labour shall labour diligently during working hours ;
- (14.) Every prisoner will find it to his interest at all times to conform to these Rules, and to carefully read them over, but if a prisoner is unable to read, they will be read over or explained to him by an officer, on application, at a reasonable time.

41. Every prisoner who is sentenced to suffer death shall, after judgment, be confined in some safe place within the Gaol, apart from all other prisoners ; and no person, except the Warden, Gaolers, Guards and Matron, the Medical Officer or Surgeon of the Gaol and a Minister of Religion, shall have access to any such convict without the permission, in writing, of the Court or Judge before whom such convict has been tried, or of the Sheriff.

42. Prisoners awaiting trial, or in custody under civil process, shall have the right to send and receive letters at all reasonable times, provided that the contents of such letters are not in any way subversive of Gaol discipline ; but prisoners under sentence shall only be allowed to write to relatives once a month, unless the Warden's consent is obtained to write oftener.

43. Prisoners shall be allowed to see and consult with their Legal Advisers and Clergymen at any hour between 10 o'clock a. m. and 5 o'clock p. m., or earlier or later if permitted to do so by the Warden ; and such consultations, may, if the Legal Adviser or Clergyman desires, be made apart from all other prisoners or any Officer of the Gaol. Other persons may be allowed to see and converse with prisoners at such hours and on such days as the Warden may fix ; but such visits and conversations must take place in the presence of a Gaol Official, and no person shall be allowed access to any prisoner for the purpose of interviewing him or her with a view to the publishing of a report of such interview.

44. In so far as the accommodation and arrangement of the Gaol will permit, whenever, in the case of a prisoner charged with an indictable offence, the authority having the charge of the prosecution considers it in the interests of justice, and requires, by writing under his hand, that such prisoner shall be kept separate and apart from other prisoners, the Warden shall see that such requirement is strictly carried out, and that such prisoner is kept separate and apart from all other prisoners, and that he or she is not afforded any opportunity to communicate in any way with anyone, except his or her Legal Adviser or Clergyman, or such other person as the authority shall in writing sanction.

"Authority" in this section shall mean and include the Attorney-General, Deputy Attorney-General, Counsel acting for the Crown in the prosecution of the prisoner, Clerk of the Peace, Deputy Clerk of the Peace, Inspector and Chief Constable.

VII.—GAOL OFFENCES AND PUNISHMENTS.

45. No punishments or deprivations of any kind shall be awarded to any prisoner except by the Warden or Inspector, who shall have power to order punishments or deprivations for the following offences, namely :—

- (1.) Disobedience of the Rules and Regulations of the Gaol :
- (2.) Common assaults by one prisoner upon another :
- (3.) Cursing or using profane language :
- (4.) Indecent behaviour or language towards another prisoner, towards any Officer of the Gaol or towards a visitor :
- (5.) Idleness or negligence at work on the part of a prisoner sentenced to hard labour :
- (6.) Refusal or neglect by a prisoner to keep his or her cell in order :

(7.) Wilfully destroying or defacing Gaol property :

(8.) Insubordination of any sort.

46. In the foregoing offences the Warden or Inspector may award any of the following punishments or deprivations in his discretion, according to the seriousness of the offence :—

(1.) Solitary confinement in a dark cell, with or without bedding, not to exceed six days for any one offence, nor three days at any one time :

(2.) Bread and water diet, full or half rations, combined or not with No. (1).

47. Before awarding punishment to any prisoner the Warden or Inspector shall make careful inquiry into all the facts connected with the commission of any offence, and shall make an entry, signed by him, in the Punishment Book of the following particulars :—

(1.) The name of the prisoner :

(2.) The nature of the offence :

(3.) The name of the complainant and witnesses :

(4.) The punishment or deprivation awarded.

58. A Gaoler or Guard shall have authority summarily to confine any prisoner in his cell for misconduct, or to place irons on his hands and feet should he find it necessary; such restraint not to extend over a longer period than is necessary to bring the matter before the Warden or Inspector.

49. Every prisoner sentenced to the Gaol shall be entitled to earn a remission of a portion of the time for which he or she is sentenced, not exceeding five days for every month during which he or she is exemplary in behaviour, industry and faithfulness, and does not violate any of the Gaol Rules.

50. Every such person who commits any breach of the Rules of the Gaol shall, besides any other penalty to which he or she is liable, be liable to forfeit the whole or any part of any remission which he or she has so earned.

VIII.—IDENTIFICATION OF CRIMINALS.

51. "The Criminals' Identification Act, Canada, 1898," enacts :—

"(1.) Any person in lawful custody, charged with, or under conviction of an indictable offence, may be subjected, by or under the direction of those in whose authority he is, to the measurements, processes and operations practised under the system for the identification of criminals commonly known as the Bertillon Signaletic System, or to any measurements, processes or operations sanctioned by the Governor in Council having the like object in view. IX.—PRISONERS' CLOTHING.

52. There shall be a uniform Gaol garb in all the Gaols of the Province, in which prisoners who have been convicted and sentenced shall be clothed; the garb for male prisoners to consist of a tunic, trousers, and cap made of cloth, or a straw hat, the colour and quality of which shall be prescribed by the Inspector, a pair of brogans, or other suitable footwear, and such overcoat and underclothing as the season requires; and for the female prisoners an over-dress and under-skirt of such material and colour as the Inspector shall prescribe, a pair of shoes, and such underclothing as the season requires, all of which articles (except boots, shoes, stockings and socks) shall be marked in a conspicuous place with the letters P. G. and the broad arrow thus :—
P ↘ G.

53. As soon as a prisoner is convicted and sentenced, his or her personal clothing shall be removed, and a list thereof shall be entered in the Prisoners' Effects Book, and the prisoner shall be clothed in the prescribed Gaol garb and no other, during the whole term of his or her imprisonment; and if the clothes of a prisoner awaiting trial are insufficient or unfit for use, or are required for the purposes of justice, they shall be removed, and the prisoner shall be clothed in the Gaol garb, unless he or she provides other suitable clothing.

54. Prisoners convicted of misdemeanours of a political character, or committed on civil process or for contempt of Court, witnesses for the Crown, and persons of unsound mind shall not be required to wear the Gaol garb, provided their own clothing, upon examination, is found to be in a fit condition to be worn.

X.—DIETARIES.

55. No beer or wine, or fermented or spirituous liquors of any kind, shall be allowed to prisoners, or permitted within the Gaol, unless specially ordered by the Gaol Surgeon, such order to be recorded in his Journal, together with the name of the prisoner for whom the article is ordered.

56. No smoking shall be allowed, nor shall any tobacco be permitted in the Gaol, except by the order of the Gaol Surgeon, such order to be recorded in his Journal, together with the name of the prisoner to whom the privilege is allowed.

57. No food of any kind shall be sold by any officer to a prisoner, or by one prisoner to another; nor shall any Gaol officer have any pecuniary interest, direct or indirect, in any food, clothing or other articles supplied to the prisoners, nor shall any Gaol officer, or any member of his family, use any of the Gaol stores, except for heating, lighting, or cleaning the house or quarters allotted to them.

58. The Gaol dietaries shall be divided into two scales, namely:—

(1.) For prisoners awaiting trial, or under sentence with hard labour, where the labour done is ordinary work inside the Gaol:—

(2.) For prisoners sentenced with hard labour, and the labour consists of cutting wood and breaking stones, or any work necessitating the exercising of strength.

59. The dietary under the foregoing scales shall be as follows:—

SCALE NO. 1.

Breakfast.

Dinner.

Supper.

One pint of gruel and eight ounces of bread, every night.

60. The oatmeal gruel shall contain two ounces of oatmeal to every pint of water, and the Indian corn meal gruel two and a quarter ounces to the pint; the soup shall contain three ounces of cooked meat to the pint, and the usual quantity of vegetables, with pepper and salt. Pork may be supplied once a week instead of beef, but one ounce less in weight must be given than is named in the different scales; fish may also be substituted for beef once a week, in which case four ounces more must be given than is named in the different scales; and all prisoners shall be allowed at their meals as much good water and salt as they desire.

61. Prisoners under the care of the Gaol Surgeon shall be allowed such diet as he may direct, his instructions in this respect to be entered in his Journal, for the guidance of the Warden.

62. The food supplies shall be carefully weighed or measured when delivered out for use, and the Warden shall enter the weight or quantity in the account book, and he shall exercise the greatest care so as to ensure that all food supplied to the prisoners shall be of wholesome quality and of proper weight or measure.

63. Every Gaol shall contain a kitchen and a store-room attached thereto, and the Warden shall receive and examine all articles of food and other supplies, and shall carefully weigh or measure the same and enter the weight or measurement, and the price, in the account book.

64. The cooking of the food and the washing of clothes and bedding shall be done by a prisoner or prisoners, under the supervision of a Gaoler, if the work is done by male prisoners, and under the supervision of the Matron, if by female prisoners, the Warden deciding whether it shall be done by male or female prisoners; and if by the latter, only female prisoners must be allowed in the kitchen and wash-room, or if by the former, only male prisoners shall be present.

Blank forms of tender will be supplied to Wardens on application to the Inspector.

XII.—LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT OF PRISONERS.

66. Every prisoner must keep his or her cell clean and orderly; but the scrubbing and cleaning of the corridors, and all other portions of the Gaol and of the yards, shall be done by the prisoners sentenced to hard labour.

67. Labour is compulsory on all prisoners sentenced to hard labour, unless the health of any prisoner, as certified by the Gaol Surgeon in his Journal, will not permit of it; and the nature of the labour, other than the ordinary work inside the Gaol, at which they shall be placed, shall be determined by the Warden.

68. Prisoners awaiting trial, witnesses for the Crown, prisoners committed on Civil process, prisoners not sentenced to hard labour, and lunatic prisoners, shall have the option of employment, but shall not be required to perform hard labour, but shall keep their cells clean and in order, and all shall be invited to work.

69. The prisoners shall leave the Gaol for work in the summer time at 7:30 o'clock a.m., returning at 5:30 o'clock p.m. In the winter time they shall leave the Gaol at 8 o'clock a.m., and return before dark. One hour shall be allowed at noon for dinner.

70. Under no circumstances whatever shall a prisoner be permitted to leave the Gaol premises unless accompanied by the Warden, or by a Gaoler, a Guard or a Constable, and in the case of a female prisoner, by the Matron.

71. No prisoner shall be required to perform any labour, either within or without the Gaol, other than keeping his or her cell and the Gaol clean and in order, on Sundays, Christmas Day and Good Friday; and no Jew or Jewess shall be required to perform any labour, either within or without the Gaol, other than aforesaid, on his or her Sabbath Day.

A Warden, Matron, Gaoler or Guard, desiring leave of absence for a period greater than two weeks in any one year, shall apply in writing to the Inspector; such application, in the case of a Matron, Gaoler or Guard, to be recommended by the Warden if he sees fit to do so; the Inspector to obtain authority from the Attorney-General before granting the same.
